

Stride: Beyond MVP. Scaling the Job Search Revolution.

Organization. Insight. Emotional Support.

The modern job search is a trifecta of pain.

7.5M+ active seekers are submitting 400–750 applications per search.

1. Organizational Chaos

Candidates are drowning in fragmented tools—spreadsheets, notes apps, and email folders. This results in missed follow-ups and duplicate applications.

2. Strategic Blindness

Seekers operate on intuition, not data. They have zero visibility into success rates by source or optimal timing.

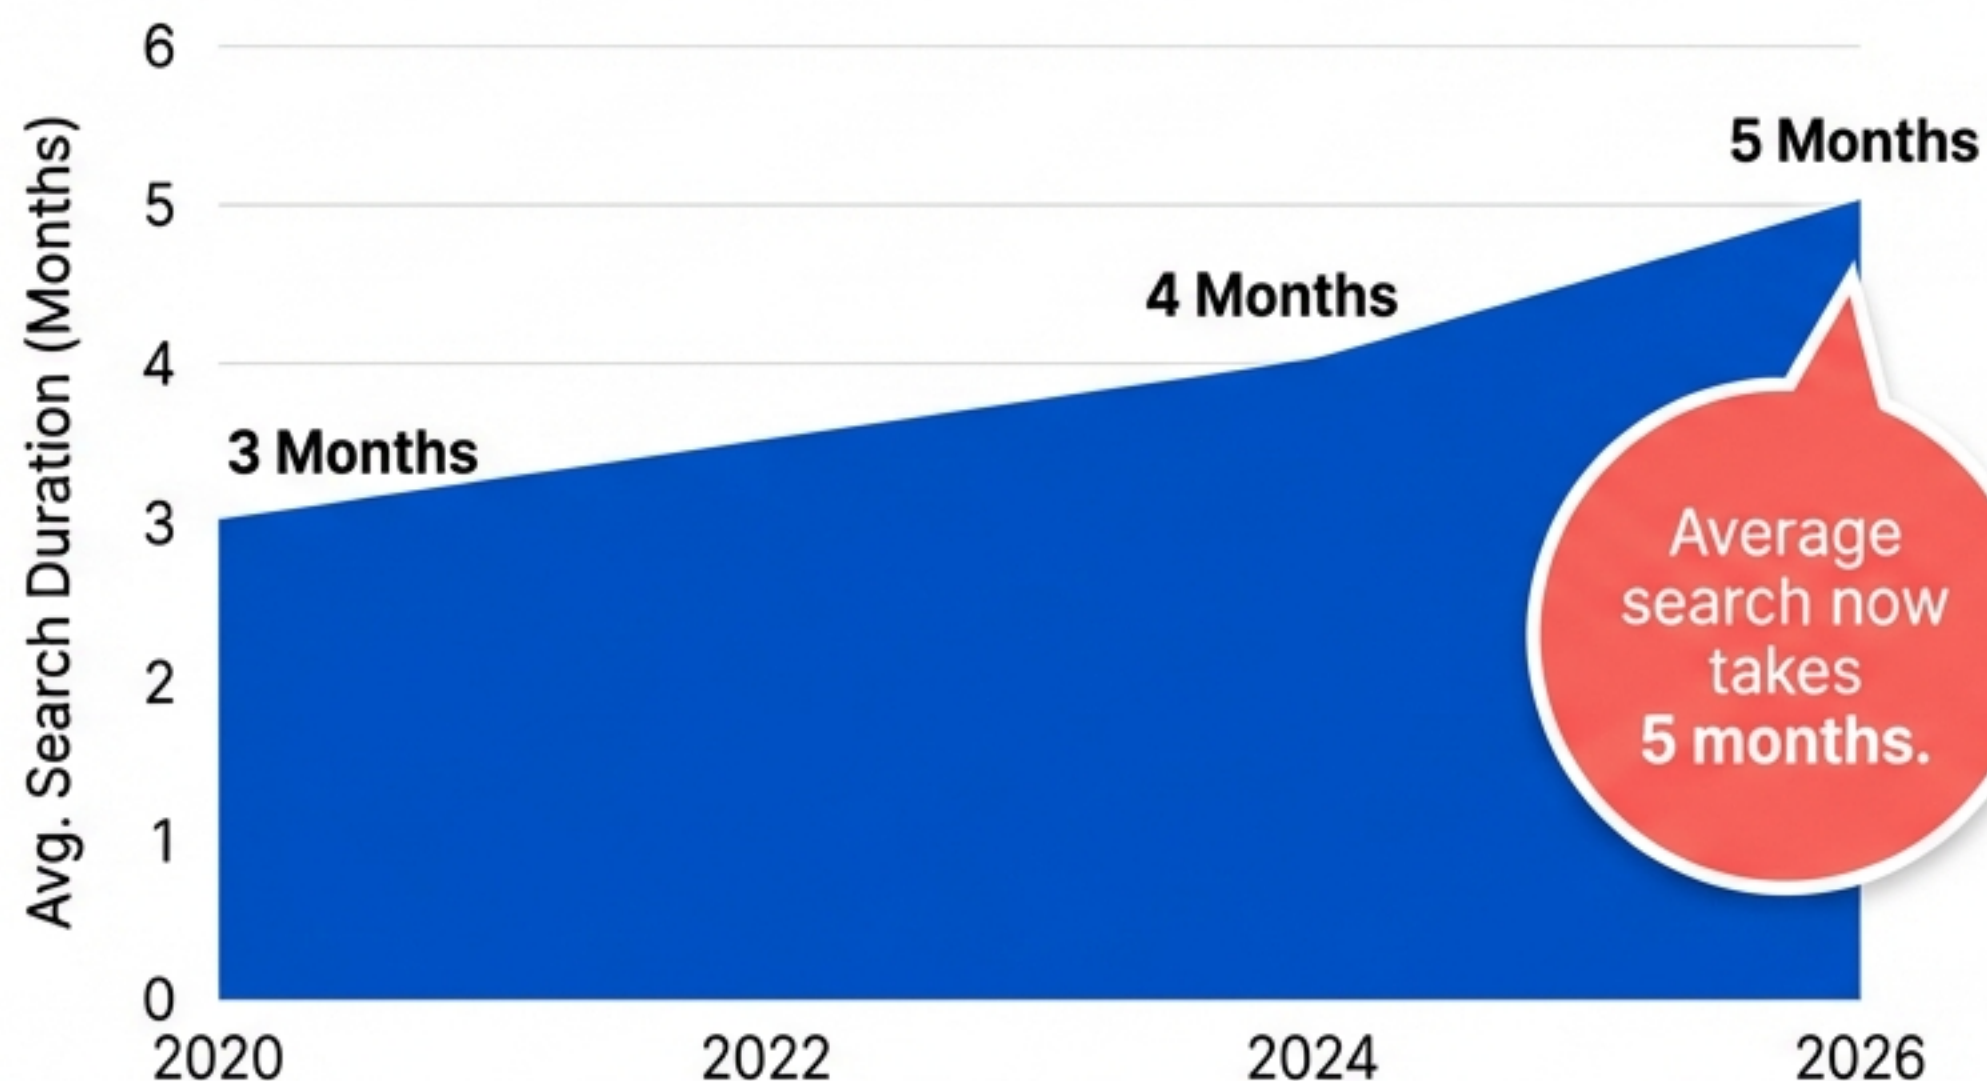

3. The Emotional Toll

The "silent killer" of the search. Prolonged rejection correlates with anxiety and depression, yet current tools treat users as data points, not people.

The marathon is getting longer and the hurdles are getting higher.

23.5%

of the unemployed remain jobless for 27+ weeks.

The Digital Native Factor:
72% of Gen Z and 66% of Millennials plan to change jobs within 12 months.

Insight: The sheer volume of applications required today renders manual tracking (spreadsheets) obsolete. The market is desperate for purpose-built tooling.

We replace messy spreadsheets with purpose-built clarity.

“Stride is the only job search platform that treats you as a whole person, not just an applicant.”
